Applicant Qualification Section

Before you begin to fill out the first part of the personal history statement, please ensure that you meet the following requirements. You must meet all five (5) requirements to qualify for licensure as a Peace Officer, Jailer, or 911 Telecommunicator in Texas.

Initial:	I am a citizen of the United States of America
-	I have earned a high school diploma or a GED.
	I have never been convicted, plead guilty (nolo contendere), nor have I been on court-ordered community service/probation or deferred adjudication for a Class A misdemeanor or a felony.
	During the last ten (10) years, I have not been convicted, plead guilty (note contendere), been on community service/probation or deferred adjudication for a Class B misdemeanor in this state, other state, or while serving in the military.
-	I have never had a military court martial that resulted in a dishonorable or back

DISQUALIFICATION There are very few automatic basis for rejection. Even issues of prior misconduct, employee terminations, and arrests are usually not, in and of themselves, automatically disqualifying. However, deliberate misstatements or omissions can and often will result in your application being rejected, regardless of the nature or reason for the misstatements/omissions. In fact, the number one reason individuals "fail" background investigations is because they deliberately withhold or misrepresent jobrelevant information from their prospective employer. This personal history statement is a governmental document. Be truthful, as there are criminal consequences for lying on a government document.
